

How can life be fine one day and then be suddenly reversed?
Into this global disarray, I've been immersed, headfirst
I thirst for something that I can have control of
But the only one who's in control is up above

Why can't that be enough for me?
It's like I need the world to see
That this won't get the best of me

But then again I'm just a teen
Who's just tryna keep her cool, follow the rules
Keep her Bible as her tool
To ground her faith in throughout
This global chaos, confusion

But I have to remember
That It's He who makes me stronger
It's He who has all of the power
It's He who knows what best for me and who makes me prosper

So I know that no matter what happens I'll be okay
For it's Him and the people he blesses me with that get me through it day by day
Now all I need to do is hold on, stay strong, and pray
