

Outside the sickness grows in numbers every day.
Here cooped up in my home, I will stay.
The safety of others always seems at stake,
The lives of many it will take
Here at home I feel ok,
At least now I can sleep through the day.
Online learning I might prefer,
but the feeling of loneliness might occur.
I wish I could go back to school,
so I could do my work and act like a fool.
I miss my friend's all the same
But quarantine is surprisingly lame.
